FIRST RESPONDER/FIRE CHASER
Sunrise, FL

We are a 24/7 water, fire and mold damage service company with an immediate need for a fire chaser/sales person to join a rapidly growing company. This individual will be pursuing/chasing emergency leads to sell the company services. First Responder/Fire chaser responds to emergency leads in real time and sells our company services to affected homeowners. The company subscribes to a third-party service that provides emergency leads in real time. These leads will be provided to the fire chaser and the individual will be expected show up at the scene of the emergency, make contact with the homeowner or authorized individual, and sell the necessary services to mitigate the damage caused by the emergency. We are a full-service restoration company that performs all restoration services in-house. We are also a preferred vendor for all major insurance companies. These two elements are an enormous advantage in selling services to affected property owners.

Candidate will be active, self-motivated, sharp, responsible, professional and experienced individual in the marketing field to build customer relations and create future clientele and revenue growth. Prior experience in Construction/Restoration sales and chasing fires is a huge plus. Candidates with a proven track record of construction sales, and ability/confidence/personality to perform and deliver in a high-pressure, cut-throat environment of fire chasing will be given serious consideration. The more experience you have; the greater the opportunity for high income in this profitable business. This position can be very lucrative for the right individual with a possibility of earnings in six figures in the first year of employment. Highest compensation for commission-only sales reps, expenses paid. $1000 a week is just a start, unlimited potential with no cap! Gas card, cell phone provided.
