Firm, P.A., a Florida professional association, and

VERIFIED EMERGENCY MOTION FOR APPOINTMENT OF RECEIVER

Plaintiff, Scot Strems (“Plaintiff”), by and through his undersigned counsel and pursuant to Rule 1.620 of the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure, requests the appointment of a receiver over Defendant, The Property Advocates, P.A. f/k/a The Strems Law Firm, P.A. (“TPA”), and states:

INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff has filed this action to: (i) recover sums due to Plaintiff pursuant to a promissory note executed by TPA on July 9, 2020 in connection with the redemption of Plaintiff’s shares in TPA; (ii) enforce a security agreement and stock escrow agreement executed by TPA to secure the repayment of such sums and which provided, among other things, for the sale of Plaintiff’s redeemed shares upon an event of default to satisfy the debts owed to Plaintiff; and (iii) avoid a multitude of fraudulent transfers made by TPA to the shareholders that replaced Plaintiff after the redemption of his shares, specifically including Defendant, Hunter Patterson (“Patterson”), and to other non-shareholders, including Michael Patrick, Esq. (“Patrick”) and Cristina Romero (“Mrs. Romero”), to the tune of tens of millions of dollars, which have rendered TPA insolvent and unable to meet its obligations to its creditors, including Plaintiff, its largest creditor. As a secured creditor, Plaintiff maintains that the collateral pledged by TPA to secure the repayment of the obligations owed to Plaintiff is in peril because of Patterson’s wrongful and fraudulent insistence on utilizing TPA to enrich himself and his cohorts and to pay his personal expenses, to the tune of nearly $30 million. Accordingly, the appointment of a receiver over TPA is necessary to prevent further fraud and dissipation of TPA’s assets, which are pledged as security for the repayment of TPA’s obligations owed to Plaintiff.

BACKGROUND

A. Plaintiff and TPA Complete a Redemption of Plaintiff’s Shares in TPA and TPA Otherwise Divests Himself of a Role in Defendant.

1. TPA, which was originally known as “The Stremms Law Firm, P.A.,” is a law firm devoted exclusively to first party insurance claims on behalf of homeowners. Plaintiff founded TPA and, until July 9, 2020, was its sole shareholder.

2. Faced with a suspension from the practice of law that was announced on June 9, 2020, with an effective date of July 9, 2020, Plaintiff was presented with the proverbial fork in the road. He was either required to close and liquidate TPA, which had grown into a very successful and lucrative law practice with more than 7,000 active cases for its clients at the time Plaintiff’s suspension was announced, or divest himself of his interest in the practice so that TPA may continue as a going concern and the active litigation matters being handled by TPA on behalf of its clients would not be disrupted more than what was already the case following Plaintiff’s sudden suspension from the practice of law.

3. For the sake of TPA's clients, employees, and vendors, Plaintiff elected the latter approach. To that end, on July 1, 2020, in anticipation of his departure from the law firm, Plaintiff filed Articles of Amendment to TPA's Articles of Incorporation changing TPA's name to "The Property Advocates, P.A." to remove Plaintiff's name from the firm and ensure that his divestiture from the firm could occur without any material adverse effects on the interests of the firm's clients.

4. Thereafter, on July 9, 2020, Plaintiff entered into a Redemption Agreement with TPA for the redemption of Plaintiff's 400,000 shares in TPA (the "Redeemed Shares"), which represented one hundred percent (100%) of the then outstanding shares of TPA, in exchange for a $40,000,000 promissory note that was to be secured by TPA's assets and the Redeemed Shares, a true and correct copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 1 (the "Redemption Agreement").

5. As set forth in the Redemption Agreement, TPA executed and delivered a $40,000,000 Promissory Note in favor of Plaintiff that provided for the repayment of the principal amount of $40,000,000 along with interest at the rate of forty-five hundredths percent (0.45%) compounded annually, by semi-annual payments of $2,000,000 each on December 31 and June 30 of each calendar year (the "Installment Payments") and a balloon payment of the entire principal balance and interest due upon maturity on July 1, 2030 (the "Maturity Date"), a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 2 (the "Note").

6. The Note provides for the right to accelerate the amounts due and owing under the Note, as follows:

In the event (i) Obligor [i.e., Defendant] shall default on any installment payment of principal or interest under this Note when the same is due and payable, which default is not cured within ten (10) days following written notice of such default is provided by Holder [i.e., Plaintiff], (ii) Obligor shall make an assignment for the benefit of creditors, or (iii) Obligor shall admit in writing its inability to pay its debts as they become due or shall file a voluntary petition in bankruptcy or shall be adjudicated bankrupt, then upon the occurrence of any such events, the total unpaid principal and accrued interest due under this Note may be declared immediately due and payable at the option of Holder.”

The Note further provides that a “[f]ailure to exercise this option shall not constitute a waiver of the right to exercise same at a later time for any subsequent default.” Further, Plaintiff is entitled to recover from TPA “all costs of collection, including reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs.” Finally, the Note provides for the payment of default interest “at the lesser of eighteen percent (18%) per annum, or the maximum interest rate allowed by the law of the State of Florida.”

7. Plaintiff does not have the original of the Note but has standing to reestablish the Note pursuant to Florida Statutes § 673.3091, and is, therefore, entitled to enforce the Note. That is: (i) Plaintiff was entitled to enforce the Note when it lost possession thereof; (ii) Plaintiff’s loss of possession of the Note was not the result of a transfer by Plaintiff or a lawful seizure of the Note; and (iii) Plaintiff cannot reasonably obtain possession of the Note because its whereabouts cannot be determined and/or it is in the wrongful possession of an unknown person or a person that cannot be found or is not amenable to service of process.

8. Plaintiff attempted to secure the original of the Note prior to the filing of this action, which he understood was in possession of William Kalish, Esq., the attorney that prepared the Note and other transaction documents described herein, or the Escrow Agent (as that term is defined below), or Johnson Pope Bokor Ruppel & Burns, LLP, the law firm at which Mr. Kalish worked at the time, and neither of them were able to locate the original of the Note. Plaintiff was in possession of a copy of the executed Note, and can confirm that the Note was actually executed on behalf of TPA and has not been repaid.

9. The repayment of the Note was secured by a Security Agreement executed by Plaintiff and TPA that granted a security interest to Plaintiff in substantially all the assets of TPA and one hundred percent (100%) of the outstanding shares of TPA, including the Redeemed Shares, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 3 (the “Security Agreement”). Further, the Security Agreement expressly provided that “until the Note shall have been satisfied in full (whether by conversion, payment, or otherwise), Obligor [i.e., Defendant] shall not, without Obligee’s [i.e., Plaintiff’s] prior consent, assign, transfer, encumber, or otherwise dispose of the Collateral, or any interest therein, except in the ordinary course of Obligor’s business.” Id. at ¶ 5.1. And, further, the Security Agreement provides in pertinent part that TPA “shall not ... grant any security interest in the Collateral.” Id. at ¶ 5.2. The Security Agreement also provides that an “Event of Default” under the Note shall constitute an “Event of Default” under the Security Agreement. Id. at ¶ 6.1. Finally, the Security Agreements provides that, upon an “Event of Default” under the Security Agreement, Plaintiff “may ... declare all Obligations secured hereby immediately due and payable without demand or notice of any kind, and the same thereupon shall immediately become and be due and payable without demand or notice” and that he “shall have and may exercise from time to time any and all rights and remedies of a secured party under the Uniform Commercial Code and any and all rights and remedies available to it under any other applicable law.” Id. at ¶ 7.

10. Additionally, also on July 9, 2020, a Stock Escrow Agreement was executed among Plaintiff, TPA, and Non-Party Mark Kamilar as Escrow Agent (the “Escrow Agent”), which provided that the Escrow Agent would retain possession of the Redeemed Shares until such time as TPA repaid the amounts due under the Note or a default by TPA of the obligations under the Note, in which case Plaintiff had the option to direct the Escrow Agent to either place the Redeemed Shares up for sale or, in the event that Plaintiff was reinstated to the practice of law, return the Redeemed Shares to Plaintiff, a true and correct copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 4 (the “Escrow Agreement”).

11. More specifically, Section 4(b) of the Escrow Agreement provided as follows:

Upon the occurrence of any of the events of default listed below, the Stockholder [i.e., Plaintiff] shall deliver to Escrow Agent, within ten (10) days after any such default, a written notice indicating the nature of such default (the “Default Notice”) which shall contain (i) an affidavit, sworn to by such representative, stating that the Corporation [i.e., Defendant] has defaulted, with specific reference to the date or dates of default; and (ii) direction to Escrow Agent to (A) sell all or whatever portion of the Redeemed Shares as is necessary and required in order to satisfy the unpaid principal amount, together with accrued interest to the date of payment, if any, due under the Note, or (B) to release and return the Redeemed Shares to the Stockholder; provided, however, that the foregoing shall be applicable only if the Stockholder is currently eligible to practice law in the State of Florida as determined by The Florida Bar

Section 5(a) of the Escrow Agreement provided that “[t]he Corporation’s failure to make timely payments of any amounts due under the Note” shall constitute an event of default upon the occurrence of which, TPA is entitled to exercise all of his rights set forth in the Escrow Agreement.

12. Section 4(c) of the Escrow Agreement further provides as follows:

Upon receipt by Escrow Agent of the Default Notice, Escrow Agent shall forthwith notify the Corporation [i.e., Defendant] of such receipt. If the Corporation claims that no such default has occurred and the event of default set forth in the Default Notice is the nonpayment of amounts due under the Note, the Corporation must, within ten (10) days after receipt of such notice from Escrow Agent, exhibit to Escrow Agent canceled checks or written receipts evidencing payment of such alleged defaulted payments. If no controverting affidavit or other evidence of payment is received by Escrow Agent from the Corporation within such ten (10) day period and if the Stockholder has complied with all the requirements set forth herein, Escrow Agent shall sell or return, as applicable, all or whatever portion of Redeemed Shares in accordance with and pursuant to the direction given by such legal representative in the Default Notice to Escrow Agent. If the event of default set forth in the Default Notice is a default other than the nonpayment of amounts due under the Note, the Corporation shall, within the same ten (10) day period set forth above, exhibit to Escrow Agent evidence or an affidavit controverting the allegation of default.

Emphasis added.

13. The Redemption Agreement, Note, Security Agreement, and Escrow Agreement are, collectively, the “Transaction Documents.”

14. In conjunction with the redemption of Plaintiff’s shares as set forth in the Transaction Documents, TPA also entered into subscription agreements with three new shareholders, Patterson, Christopher Narchet, Esq. (“Narchet”), and the since-deceased Orlando Romero, Esq. (“Romero”) (collectively, the “New Shareholders”), who were employees of TPA at the time. Each of the New Shareholders received 4,000 shares in Defendant. The New Shareholders did not pay any consideration to Plaintiff or TPA for their shares in TPA and were essentially handed a law firm with a valuation in excess of $40,000,000 for free.

15. The New Shareholders appointed Defendant Patterson as President and Director of TPA, Narchet as Treasurer, Romero as Secretary, and Cecile Mendizabal, Esq. (“Mendizabal”), an attorney employed by TPA, as a director.

16. As of July 9, 2020, Plaintiff was no longer a shareholder of TPA and was no longer involved in the management of TPA’s business activities. In his absence, Defendant Patterson, who was previously an associate at the law firm and had no experience managing a business or law firm, let alone a law firm with the volume and revenues generated by Defendant TPA, but had nonetheless been appointed President, exercised complete control of TPA and made the day-to-day decisions on behalf of the company. He enlisted Patrick, an attorney employed by TPA who also had no experience managing a business or law firm, as TPA's Chief Operating Officer and his right-hand man. Together, Defendant Patterson and Patrick steered TPA on a path towards insolvency and destruction designed to enrich themselves and their friends and leave behind only a carcass of what was once an exceedingly successful law firm for TPA's creditors.

B. TPA Failed to Make the Installment Payments When Due and Plaintiff Exercised His Rights to Accelerate the Amounts Due Under the Note and to Have the Redeemed Shares Sold to Satisfy Such Amounts.

17. TPA failed to make each of the Installment Payments due on December 31, 2020, June 30, 2021, December 31, 2021, June 30, 2022, and December 31, 2022, respectively, in their entirety, choosing instead to make sporadic partial payments that resulted in a shortfall with respect to each of those payments, as follows:

- December 31, 2020 Installment: TPA made loan payments totaling $500,000 between July 9, 2020 and December 31, 2020, resulting in a shortfall of $1,500,000 for the December 31, 2020 installment payment;
- June 30, 2021 Installment: TPA made loan payments totaling $1,002,000 between January 1, 2021 and June 30, 2021, resulting in a shortfall of $998,000 for the June 30, 2021 installment payment;
- December 31, 2021 Installment: TPA made loan payments totaling $1,732,000 between July 1, 2021 and December 31, 2021, resulting in a shortfall of $268,000 for the December 31, 2021 installment payment;
- June 30, 2022 Installment: TPA made loan payments totaling $1,016,000 between January 1, 2022 and June 30, 2022, resulting in a shortfall of $984,000 for the June 30, 2022 installment payment; and
- December 31, 2022 Installment: TPA made loan payments totaling $600,000 between July 1, 2022 and December 31, 2022, resulting in a shortfall of $1,400,000 for the December 31, 2022 installment payment.

In total, TPA failed to make $5,150,000 in Installment Payments when due (the "Installment Payment Shortfall") and was, therefore, in default of such payment obligations.

18. On January 20, 2023, Plaintiff caused a Notice of Default to be issued to TPA providing notice of TPA's failure to make the Installment Payments in a timely manner and demanding that the Installment Payment Shortfall be paid within ten (10) days of that correspondence, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 5 (the "Notice of Default").

19. Rather than cure the default and pay the Installment Payment Shortfall, TPA responded to the Notice of Default on January 30, 2023 by falsely contending that Plaintiff had waived any defaults in connection with those Installment Payments by not objecting to receiving partial payments and is otherwise estopped from declaring TPA in default of its obligations under the Note, and that Plaintiff had somehow misappropriated funds from TPA prior to and after June 9, 2020, which was the date his suspension from the practice of law was announced and on which dates he was the sole shareholder of TPA, and should be required to offset such "misappropriated funds" against any debt owed by TPA to Plaintiff. TPA did not, however, cure its default under the Note or other pay the Installment Payment Shortfall as demanded.

20. Accordingly, on February 9, 2023, Plaintiff caused a Notice of Acceleration of the principal and interest due under the Note to be issued to TPA (through its counsel), in which he provided notice to TPA that it had not cured the default under the Note within ten (10) days of the Notice of Default and declared, in accordance with the terms of the Note, that the total unpaid principal and accrued interest due under the Note was due and payable, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 6 (the "Notice of Acceleration"). As set forth in the Notice of Acceleration, the total amount due under the Note as of February 9, 2023 was $35,589,784.82, which consisted of principal of $35,566,982.75 and accrued interest through February 9, 2023 of $22,801.85, which bears interest from February 9, 2023 until paid at the default rate of eighteen percent (18%) per annum (the "Outstanding Note Balance").

21. That same day, in accordance with Section 4(b) of the Escrow Agreement, Plaintiff caused a Notice of Event of Default to be issued to the Escrow Agent (and copying TPA's counsel), a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 7 (the "February 9, 2023 Default Notice"), thereby providing notice to the Escrow Agent that TPA "has defaulted under the terms of the Note by failing to make the semi-annual installment payments due thereunder and, after receiving notice of such payment default, failing to cure the default within ten (10) days as set forth in the Note," that Plaintiff "has exercised his option to declare the Outstanding [Note] Balance to be immediately due and owing," and that, "as set forth in Section 5(a) of the Escrow Agreement, [Plaintiff] is entitled to exercise all the rights set forth therein."

22. In accordance with Section 4(b) of the Escrow Agreement, the February 9, 2023 Default Notice enclosed an affidavit sworn to by Plaintiff stating that, as of January 30, 2023, TPA had defaulted under the Note and providing specific reference to the date or dates of default. Further, the February 9, 2023 Default Notice directed the Escrow Agent "to 'sell all of whatever portion of the Redeemed Shares as is necessary and required in order to satisfy the unpaid principal amount, together with accrued interest to the date of payment, if any, due under the Note.'"

23. Accordingly, upon receipt of the February 9, 2023 Default Notice, the Escrow Agent was required to notify TPA of its receipt of the February 9, 2023 Default Notice and provide ten (10) days for TPA to respond to the February 9, 2023 Default Notice and, if it claims that no defaults have occurred, to provide proof of such as contemplated in Section 4(c) of the Escrow Agreement.

24. Instead of providing such proof, TPA caused correspondence and an affidavit signed by Patterson to be sent to the Escrow Agent on February 9, 2023, in which it denied any default, contended that the affidavit signed by Patterson controverted the default claimed by Plaintiff, and threatened to take legal action against the Escrow Agent if he took any steps to sell the Redeemed Shares pursuant to the Escrow Agreement, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 8 (“TPA’s Response”). Patterson’s affidavit submitted along with TPA’s Response, provides, in pertinent part, that Plaintiff never objected to the receipt of only partial payments or declared TPA to be in default and, therefore, waived and is otherwise estopped from asserting that TPA is in default of its obligations under the Note. TPA’s Response and Patterson’s affidavit do not satisfy the requirements of Section 4(c) of the Escrow Agreement. Further, TPA’s threats of a lawsuit against the Escrow Agent for carrying out his duties under the Escrow Agreement are inconsistent with Section 4(d) of the Escrow Agreement, which requires TPA to execute and deliver any and all documents that the Escrow Agent may request in order to empower him to perform his duties under the Escrow Agreement.

25. The Escrow Agent has indicated that he is in possession of the Redeemed Shares and that, upon the commencement of an action to enforce the Escrow Agreement, would intervene in such action to interplead and deposit the Redeemed Shares in this Court, as contemplated in Section 10(b) of the Escrow Agreement.

C. TPA Made a Multitude of Fraudulent Transfers to the New Shareholders, including Patterson, in a Concerted Effort to Defraud Creditors, including Plaintiff.

26. As the Installment Payment Shortfall arose, Patterson advised Plaintiff that TPA was simply unable to make the payments required under the Note because of insufficient revenues and that TPA would pay what it could pay to Plaintiff.

27. It is now clear, however, that instead of ensuring that TPA honored its obligations to its creditors, including Plaintiff who was its largest creditor, Patterson directed and caused TPA to be utilized as a piggy bank and vehicle to grossly enrich himself and his cohorts beyond their imaginations. At the direction of Patterson, TPA reimbursed Patterson and Patrick for hundreds of thousands of dollars in personal expenses that were disguised as business expenses and, further, made millions of dollars in purported distributions to Patterson, which served only to enrich Patterson and render TPA insolvent and unable to meet the demands of its creditors, specifically including Plaintiff, during a period of time that he contended that TPA simply had insufficient revenues to pay Plaintiff as agreed.

28. Upon information and belief, Patterson caused TPA to reimburse him and Patrick for expenses large and small that were personal in nature such as clothing, shoes, luggage purchases, meal prep subscriptions, workout plans, vitamins and supplements, coffee purchases, SunPass tolls, lunches and other meals that were unrelated to TPA's business, Amazon.com purchases, and any number of other personal expenses, under the guise that they were business expenses.

29. Further, at a time during which Patterson repeatedly represented to Plaintiff that TPA simply had insufficient revenues to make the Installment Payments in a timely manner, Patterson caused TPA to make nearly $30 million in purported shareholder distributions to the New Shareholders. Even Mrs. Romero, who was Romero's widow and has never been a shareholder of TPA, received large "shareholder distributions" from TPA. Patrick received excessive bonuses and, as he departed the company for a new position, insisted that he was owed a large sum of money as deferred compensation, which, upon information and belief, was paid by TPA or is currently being paid by TPA at the behest of Patterson.

30. The large sums advanced by TPA to the New Shareholders, specifically including Patterson, and to Mrs. Romero and Patrick were made to insiders and/or rendered TPA insolvent and unable to meet the obligations owed to its creditors, including Plaintiff.

31. On these facts, Plaintiff has filed his Verified Complaint against Defendants consisting of six (6) causes of action for: (i) breach of the Note; (ii) foreclosure of the Security Agreement; (iii) specific performance of the Escrow Agreement; (iv) avoidance of fraudulent transfers; and (v) unjust enrichment.

ARGUMENT

“The appointment of a receiver is a drastic matter in that it constitutes a taking of property and, therefore, should not be used by the courts except in cases of necessity.” Electro Mechanical Products, Inc. v. Borona, 324 So. 2d 638, 639 (Fla. 3d DCA 1976). The appointment of a receiver is proper where a showing is made that the property subject to a receivership “is susceptible to deterioration” or “that a receiver is necessary for the preservation of the property.” Id. at 638. The party seeking the appointment of a receiver, or petitioner, “must show either a clear legal right in himself to the property in controversy, or that he has some lien upon or property right in it, or that it constitutes a special fund out of which he is entitled to satisfaction of his demand.” Apalachicola N. R. Co. v. Sommers, 85 So. 361, 362 (Fla. 1920).

A court’s exercise of jurisdiction to appoint a receiver “must be governed by a sound and judicial discretion, taking into account all the circumstances of the case, exercised for the purpose of promoting the ends of justice and of protecting the rights of all parties interested in the controversy and subject-matter, and based upon the fact that there is no other adequate remedy or means of accomplishing the desired objects of the judicial proceeding.” Id. at 362. In exercising such discretion, a court must observe certain well-established rules:

‘(1) That the power of appointment is a delicate one, and to be exercised with great circumspection.

‘(2) That it must appear the claimant has a title to or lien upon the property, and the court must be satisfied by affidavit that a receiver is necessary to preserve the property.

‘(3) That there is no case in which the court appoints a receiver merely because the measure can do no harm.

‘(4) That fraud or imminent danger, if the immediate possession should not be taken by the court, must be clearly proved.

‘(5) That, unless the necessity be of the most stringent character, the court will not appoint until the defendant is first heard in response to the application.’

Id. (quoting Lehman v. Trust Co. of America, 57 Fla. 473 (Fla. 1909)).

A court “may appoint a receiver for a business on the showing of bad faith, breach of duty or violation of partnership agreement.” Lieberbaum v. Levine, 54 So. 2d 159, 161 (Fla. 1951). The Florida Supreme Court, in Lieberbaum, concluded that “the dissensions and discord, the attempted unlawful acts of some of the partners, the breach of fiduciary relationships and the disregard of partnership responsibility charged in this case was such that it would be difficult to match as a predicate for the appointment of a receiver.” Id. The facts of that case are revealing:

The record reveals that the operation of the Surfcomber and Seacomber Hotels was the business from which the partnership was supported. They are good properties and have been profitably operated, but ugly discord and animosities have arisen among the members of the different groups of owners. It is charged (1) that one of the appellees purloined the wife of one of the appellants, (2) that two of the appellants took $10,000 out of the partnership funds and purchased a yacht without the knowledge or consent of the other partners and did not so much as ask appellees to ride in it, (3) that one of appellants took $2,000 out of the partnership funds to make a trip to Europe, (4) that two of appellants bought $600 worth of clothes at a high priced New York Men's shop and charged them to the partnership as advertising expenses, (5) that appellants permitted the insurance policies on the business, to the extent of $7,500, to lapse for want of payment, (6) that they purchased a parking lot with partnership funds and took title in the name of a third party, (7) that the same appellants borrowed large sums of money on the partnership account and attempted to hide the fraud, and (8) that they ‘doctored’ the books of the company to disguise or cover up these transactions; that they had reached the point of calling each other thieves; and that in other ways the business of the company was being conducted in a very unbusinesslike and fraudulent manner.

Id. at 160-61 (Emphasis added).

Here, Defendant TPA has been utilized in a manner that is fraudulent to its creditors, including Plaintiff, and which renders Plaintiff's security interest over its assets fleeting in nature. Since July 9, 2020, TPA's principals, specifically including Defendant Patterson, have absconded with millions of dollars of TPA's assets, which were subject to the Security Agreement. Further, such misappropriation of funds results in a diminishment of the value of the Redeemed Shares, which are also pledged to Plaintiff as security. In the absence of a receiver appointed to preserve such assets and to claw back or assert claims to recover any fraudulent transfers made by Defendant TPA to third parties, including the New Shareholders, Patrick, Mrs. Romero, and others, the fraudulent conduct that has essentially rendered Defendant TPA insolvent and unable to meet its obligations, including to Plaintiff, is likely to continue. As a lienholder over TPA's assets, Plaintiff clearly has standing to petition this Court for the appointment of a receiver and a sufficient predicate of Defendants' fraudulent conduct is established to justify such an appointment.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests the entry of an order appointing a receiver over Defendant TPA, and granting such further relief as the Court deems just and proper under the circumstances.

Dated on this 22nd day of March 2023.

WHEREAS, Obligor has executed and delivered to Obligee that certain Promissory Note, dated as of the date hereof, in the principal amount of Forty Million Dollars ($40,000,000.00) (the “Note”) in order to fund the purchase price pursuant to the Redemption Agreement; and

3. Security for Obligations.

3.1 Obligations. This Agreement secures, and the Collateral is collateral security for, the prompt payment or performance in full when due, all obligations and liabilities of every nature of Obligor now or hereafter existing under or arising out of the Note and this Agreement and all extensions or renewals thereof, whether for principal, fees, or expenses thereunder (all such obligations of Obligor being the “Obligations”).

3.2 Grant. As security for the payment of the Obligations, Obligor hereby grants to Oblige, its successors and its assigns, for the benefit of Oblige, its successors and its assigns, a security interest in the Collateral (the “Security Interest”). Without limiting the foregoing, Oblige is hereby authorized to file one or more financing statements, continuation statements, or other documents for the purpose of perfecting, confirming, continuing, enforcing, or protecting the Security Interest, naming the Obligor as debtor, and Oblige, its successors and assigns, as secured party.

3.3 Additional Collateral. If Obligor shall at any time after the date hereof (a) obtain any rights to any additional Collateral or (b) become entitled to the benefit of any additional Collateral, the provisions hereof shall automatically apply thereto and any such item shall automatically constitute Collateral as if such would have constituted Collateral at the time of execution hereof and be subject to the Security Interest created by this Agreement without further action by any party.

4. Representations and Warranties. Obligor represents and warrants as follows:

4.1 Legal Name. Obligor’s exact legal name is as set forth in the first paragraph of this Agreement. Obligor shall not change its legal name or its form of organization without fifteen (15) days’ prior written notice to Oblige.

4.2 Authority. Obligor has the requisite power and authority to grant to Oblige the Security Interest in such Collateral pursuant hereto and to execute, deliver, and perform its obligations in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, without the consent or approval of any other person other than any consent or approval which has been obtained.

5. Covenants and Agreements. Obligor covenants and agrees as follows:

5.1 Restrictions. Obligor agrees that until the Note shall have been satisfied in full (whether by conversion, payment, or otherwise), Obligor shall not, without Oblige’s prior consent, assign, transfer, encumber, or otherwise dispose of the Collateral, or any interest therein, except in the ordinary course of Obligor’s business.

5.2 Maintenance. Obligor shall at all times maintain and keep, or cause to be maintained and kept, the Collateral. Obligor shall perform all acts and execute all documents reasonably requested by the Obligee at any time to evidence, perfect, maintain, record, and enforce the Obligee's interest in the Collateral in furtherance of the provisions of this Agreement.

5.3 Use and Disposition of Collateral. Obligor shall not make or permit to be made any assignment, pledge, or hypothecation of the Collateral, except as permitted by Section 5.1 above, or grant any security interest in the Collateral, except for the Security Interest. Obligor shall not make or permit to be made any transfer of any Collateral, except as permitted by Section 5.1 above, and Obligor shall remain at all times in possession of the Collateral owned by it other than transfers to the Obligee pursuant to the provisions hereof and as otherwise provided in this Agreement.

5.4 Further Assurances. Obligor agrees to execute, acknowledge, deliver, and cause to be duly filed all such further instruments and documents and take all such actions as Obligee may from time to time reasonably request for the assuring and preserving of the Security Interest and the rights and remedies created hereby.

6. Events of Default. Each of the following occurrences shall constitute an event of default under this Agreement (herein called "Event of Default"):

6.1 The occurrence of any Event of Default as defined by the Note;

6.2 Obligor fails to observe or materially perform any material covenant or agreement contained in this Agreement, which failure is not cured within fifteen (15) days after written notice of such default is sent by Obligee, provided that if the default is such that it can be corrected, but not within such fifteen (15) days, it will not constitute an Event of Default if Obligor takes corrective action upon such notice and diligently pursues such cure until the default is corrected;

6.3 there is any levy, seizure, or attachment of all or any material portion of the Collateral, other than as set forth in this Agreement; or

6.4 any of the representations or warranties contained in Section 4 shall prove to have been incorrect in any material respect when made.

7. Remedies. Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default and at any time thereafter while the Event of Default is continuing, unless Obligee otherwise agrees, Obligee may, at its option, declare all Obligations secured hereby immediately due and payable without demand or notice of any kind, and the same thereupon shall immediately become and be due and payable without demand or notice. Obligee shall have and may exercise from time to time any and all rights and remedies of a secured party under the Uniform Commercial Code and any and all rights and remedies available to it under any other applicable law. Obligor shall promptly pay all costs of Obligee of collection of any and all the Obligations, and enforcement of rights hereunder, including reasonable attorneys' fees and legal expenses. Obligee will give Obligor reasonable notice of the time and place of any public sale thereof or of the time after which any private sale or any other intended disposition thereof is to be made. The requirements of reasonable notice shall be met if such notice is mailed, postage prepaid, to Obligor at the address provided in Section 10, or at any other address shown on the records of Obligee, at least five (5) days before the time of the sale or disposition. Expenses of retaking, holding, preparing for sale, selling, or the like, shall include Obligee's reasonable attorneys' fees and legal expenses. Upon disposition of any Collateral after the occurrence of any default hereunder, Obligor shall be and remain liable for any deficiency; and Obligee shall account to Obligor for any surplus, but Obligee shall have the right to apply all or any part of such surplus, or to hold the same as a reserve, against all or any of the Obligations, regardless of whether they, or any of them, are then due, and in such order of application as Obligee may from time to time elect.

8. No Waiver and Cumulative Remedies. Obligee shall not by any act (except by a written instrument delivered pursuant to Section 10), delay, indulgence, omission, or otherwise, be deemed to have waived any right or remedy hereunder or to have acquiesced in any Event of Default. No failure on the part of Obligee to exercise, no course of dealing with respect to, and no delay on the part of Obligee in exercising, any right, power, or remedy hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof; nor shall any single or partial exercise of any such right, power, privilege or remedy hereunder preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power, privilege or remedy; nor shall Obligee be required to look first to, enforce or exhaust any other security, collateral, or guaranties. All rights and remedies herein provided are cumulative and are not exclusive of any rights or remedies provided by law.

9. Miscellaneous. This Agreement can be waived, modified, amended, terminated or discharged, and the Security Interest can be released, only explicitly in a writing signed by the party against whom such waiver, modification, amendment, termination, discharge or release is sought to be enforced. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of Obligor and the Obligee and their respective participants, successors, and permitted assigns and shall take effect when signed by Obligor and Obligee, and Obligor waives notice of Obligee's acceptance hereof. All questions concerning the construction, validity, enforcement and interpretation of this Agreement shall be governed by and construed and enforced in accordance with the internal laws of the State of Florida, without regard to the principles of conflicts of law thereof. Each party agrees that any action, proceeding, counterclaim, crossclaim, or other dispute relating to, involving, or resulting from this Agreement or the transactions contemplated by this Agreement will be resolved exclusively in the state or federal courts located in Miami-dade County, Florida, and each party hereby waives the right to object to any such forum on any grounds. If any provision or application of this Agreement is held unlawful or unenforceable in any respect, such illegality or unenforceability shall not affect other provisions or applications which can be given effect and this Agreement shall be construed as if the unlawful or unenforceable provision or application had never been contained herein or prescribed hereby. All representations and warranties contained in this Agreement shall survive the execution, delivery, and performance of this Agreement and the creation and payment of the Obligations.

10. Notices. Any and all notices, designations, consents, offers, acceptances, or any other communication provided for herein shall be given in writing and shall be deemed given (a) upon delivery, if delivered in person, (b) upon response, if by email to the email address known to be associated with such notice recipient and which email is confirmed or responded to by such receiving party, or (c) five (5) days following deposit with the United States Postal Service by registered or certified mail, with proper postage, which shall be addressed as follows:

6.3 there is any levy, seizure, or attachment of all or any material portion of the Collateral, other than as set forth in this Agreement; or reasonable notice shall be met if such notice is mailed, postage prepaid, to Obligor at the address provided in Section 10, or at any other address shown on the records of Obligee, at least five (5) days before the time of the sale or disposition. Expenses of retaking, holding, preparing for sale, selling, or the like, shall include Obligee's reasonable attorneys' fees and legal expenses. Upon disposition of any Collateral after the occurrence of any default hereunder, Obligor shall be and remain liable for any deficiency; and Obligee shall account to Obligor for any surplus, but Obligee shall have the right to apply all or any part of such surplus, or to hold the same as a reserve, against all or any of the Obligations, regardless of whether they, or any of them, are then due, and in such order of application as Obligee may from time to time elect.

8. No Waiver and Cumulative Remedies. Obligee shall not by any act (except by a written instrument delivered pursuant to Section 10), delay, indulgence, omission, or otherwise, be deemed to have waived any right or remedy hereunder or to have acquiesced in any Event of Default. No failure on the part of Obligee to exercise, no course of dealing with respect to, and no delay on the part of Obligee in exercising, any right, power, or remedy hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof; nor shall any single or partial exercise of any such right, power, privilege or remedy hereunder preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power, privilege or remedy; nor shall Obligee be required to look first to, enforce or exhaust any other security, collateral, or guaranties. All rights and remedies herein provided are cumulative and are not exclusive of any rights or remedies provided by law.

9. Miscellaneous. This Agreement can be waived, modified, amended, terminated or discharged, and the Security Interest can be released, only explicitly in a writing signed by the party against whom such waiver, modification, amendment, termination, discharge or release is sought to be enforced. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of Obligor and the Obligee and their respective participants, successors, and permitted assigns and shall take effect when signed by Obligor and Obligee, and Obligor waives notice of Obligee's acceptance hereof. All questions concerning the construction, validity, enforcement and interpretation of this Agreement shall be governed by and construed and enforced in accordance with the internal laws of the State of Florida, without regard to the principles of conflicts of law thereof. Each party agrees that any action, proceeding, counterclaim, crossclaim, or other dispute relating to, involving, or resulting from this Agreement or the transactions contemplated by this Agreement will be resolved exclusively in the state or federal courts located in Miami-dade County, Florida, and each party hereby waives the right to object to any such forum on any grounds. If any provision or application of this Agreement is held unlawful or unenforceable in any respect, such illegality or unenforceability shall not affect other provisions or applications which can be given effect and this Agreement shall be construed as if the unlawful or unenforceable provision or application had never been contained herein or prescribed hereby. All representations and warranties contained in this Agreement shall survive the execution, delivery, and performance of this Agreement and the creation and payment of the Obligations.

Re: NOTICE OF DEFAULT – FAILURE TO MAKE INSTALLMENT PAYMENTS OF PRINCIPAL AND INTEREST DUE UNDER $40,000,000
PROMISSORY NOTE EXECUTED BY THE PROPERTY ADVOCATES,
P.A. IN FAVOR OF SCOT STREMS

Dear Messrs. Patterson and Narchet:

We are writing in our capacity as legal counsel for Scot Stremms, Esq. (“Mr. Stremms”), the holder in due course of that certain $40,000,000 Promissory Note dated July 9, 2020 that was executed by your company, The Property Advocates, P.A., as Obligor (the “Obligor”), in favor of Mr. Stremms (the “Note”), which is secured by that certain Security Agreement dated July 9, 2020 executed by Mr. Stremms and the Obligor (the “Security Agreement”) and the rights set forth in that certain Stock Escrow Agreement dated July 9, 2020 executed by Mr. Stremms, the Obligor, and Mark Kamilar, as escrow agent (the “Escrow Agreement”). In accordance with the terms of the Note, we hereby provide written notice of the Obligor’s default of its obligation to make each of the semi-annual installment payments of $2,000,000 due on December 31, 2020, June 30, 2021, December 31, 2021, June 30, 2022, and December 31, 2022. That is, as set forth in greater detail below, the Obligor made only partial payments towards each of the above semi-annual installment payments and, therefore, has defaulted in its obligation to make such payments in a timely manner. Accordingly, demand is hereby made that the Obligor cure its default within ten (10) days following the date of this correspondence, or by January 30, 2023, by paying the sum of $5,150,000, which is the total shortfall for the above installment payments, to Mr. Stremms. Should Obligor fail to cure its defaults under the Note in a timely manner, Mr. Stremms shall declare the total unpaid principal and accrued interest due under the Note to be immediately due and payable.

The Note, which was executed by the Obligor in favor of Mr. Stremms in conjunction with the execution of that certain Redemption Agreement executed between Mr. Stremms and the Obligor also on June 9, 2020, provided for the Obligor to pay the sum of $40,000,000, along with interest at an annual rate of forty-five hundredths percent (0.45%), to Mr. Stremms by making semi-annual installment payments of $2,000,000 on December 31 and June 30 of each calendar year (the “Installment Payments”), and by paying the entire principal balance plus any accrued interest due thereon on July 1, 2030 (the “Maturity Date”). The Note provides for the right to accelerate the amounts due and owing under the Note, as follows:

In the event (i) Obligor shall default on any installment payment of principal or interest under this Note when the same is due and payable, which default is not cured within ten (10) days following written notice of such default is provided by Holder [i.e., Mr. Stremms], (ii) Obligor shall make an assignment for the benefit of creditors, or (iii) Obligor shall admit in writing its inability to pay its debts as they become due or shall file a voluntary petition in bankruptcy or shall be adjudicated bankrupt, then upon the occurrence of any such events, the total unpaid principal and accrued interest due under this Note may be declared immediately due and payable at the option of Holder [i.e., Mr. Stremms].”

The Note provides that a “[f]ailure to exercise this option shall not constitute a waiver of the right to exercise same at a later time for any subsequent default.” Further, Mr. Stremms is entitled to recover from Obligor “all costs of collection, including reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs.” Finally, the Note provides for the payment of default interest “at the lesser of eighteen percent (18%) per annum, or the maximum interest rate allowed by the law of the State of Florida.”

The Note was secured by the Security Agreement, pursuant to which Obligor granted a security interest in substantially all of the assets of Obligor and one hundred percent (100%) of the issued and outstanding stocks of Obligor that had been transferred to the Obligor in connection with the Redemption Agreement (the “Redeemed Shares”) as collateral to secure the repayment of the obligations under the Note (the “Collateral”). Security Agreement at ¶¶ 2, 3. Further, the Security Agreement expressly provided that “until the Note shall have been satisfied in full (whether by conversion, payment, or otherwise), Obligor shall not, without Obligee’s [i.e., Mr. Stremms’] prior consent, assign, transfer, encumber, or otherwise dispose of the Collateral, or any interest therein, except in the ordinary course of Obligor’s business.” Id. at ¶ 5.1. And, further, the Security Agreement provides in pertinent part that “Obligor shall not ... grant any security interest in the Collateral.” Id. at ¶ 5.2. The Security Agreement also provides that an “Event of Default” under the Note shall constitute an “Event of Default” under the Security Agreement. Id. at ¶ 6.1. Finally, the Security Agreements provides that, upon an “Event of Default” under the Security Agreement, Mr. Stremms “may ... declare all Obligations secured hereby immediately due and payable without demand or notice of any kind, and the same thereupon shall immediately become and be due and payable without demand or notice” and that he “shall have and may exercise from time to time any and all rights and remedies of a secured party under the Uniform Commercial Code and any and all rights and remedies available to it under any other applicable law.” Id. at ¶ 7.

To facilitate the rights and remedies available to Mr. Stremms, as a secured creditor, under the Security Agreement upon the occurrence of an “Event of Default” of the Obligor’s obligations under the Note, and in particular the obligation to make timely payments due and owing under the Note, the parties entered into the Escrow Agreement, which contemplates a procedure for Mr. Stremms to direct Mr. Kamilar, as escrow agent, “to ... sell all or whatever portion of the Redeemed Shares as is necessary and required in order to satisfy the unpaid principal amount, together with accrued interest to the date of payment, of any, due under the Note...” Escrow Agreement at ¶ 4(b).

The Obligor failed to make each of the Installment Payments due on December 31, 2020, June 30, 2021, December 31, 2021, June 30, 2022, and December 31, 2022, respectively, in their entirety, choosing instead to make sporadic partial payments that resulted in a shortfall with respect to each of those payments, as follows:

- December 31, 2020 Installment: Obligor made loan payments totaling $500,000 between July 9, 2020 and December 31, 2020, resulting in a shortfall of $1,500,000 for the December 31, 2020 installment payment;
- June 30, 2021 Installment: Obligor made loan payments totaling $1,002,000 between January 1, 2021 and June 30, 2021, resulting in a shortfall of $998,000 for the June 30, 2021 installment payment;
- December 31, 2021 Installment: Obligor made loan payments totaling $1,732,000 between July 1, 2021 and December 31, 2021, resulting in a shortfall of $268,000 for the December 31, 2021 installment payment;
- June 30, 2022 Installment: Obligor made loan payments totaling $1,016,000 between January 1, 2022 and June 30, 2022, resulting in a shortfall of $984,000 for the June 30, 2022 installment payment; and
- December 31, 2022 Installment: Obligor made loan payments totaling $600,000 between July 1, 2022 and December 31, 2022, resulting in a shortfall of $1,400,000 for the December 31, 2022 installment payment.

In total, Obligor has failed to make a total of $5,150,000 in Installment Payments when due and is, therefore, in default of such payment obligations.

Demand is hereby made that the Obligor cure the above defaults within ten (10) days of the date of this correspondence by paying the sum of $5,150,000 to Mr. Stremms as agreed. Should Obligor not cure its defaults in a timely manner, Mr. Stremms will be left no alternative but to declare the entire principal and interest due and owing under the Note to be immediately due, along with default interest at the right of eighteen percent (18%) per annum, and to enforce his rights and remedies available under the Note, the Redemption Agreement, the Security Agreement, and the Escrow Agreement (collectively, the “Transaction Documents”), including the rights available to him as a secured creditor and the right to direct Mr. Kamilar to sell the

Redeemed Shares to satisfy the principal and interest due under the Note. We trust that such a course of action will prove unnecessary, and that the Obligor will honor its obligations under the Note and the other Transaction Documents.

Nothing in this letter is a waiver of any of our client's rights and remedies with respect to the foregoing matters, all of which are hereby expressly reserved.

PLEASE GOVERN YOURSELVES ACCORDINGLY.

Very truly yours,

Eduardo F. Rodriguez

Re: Scot Strems, Esq. adv. The Property Advocates, P.A. – Notice of Acceleration of Principal and Interest Due Under Promissory Note dated July 9, 2020

Dear Mr. Roesch:

We are writing in our capacity as legal counsel for Scot Strems, Esq. (“Mr. Strems”), the former owner of a one hundred percent (100%) ownership interest in The Property Advocates, P.A. (the “Company”), which we understand is represented by you. We write in response to your correspondence dated January 30, 2023. We request that you confirm whether we should direct this correspondence directly to your client.

As set forth in the separate correspondence sent to the Company and the shareholders of the Company, in their capacities as officers and/or directors of the Company, on January 20, 2023, the Company is currently in default on its obligations under that certain secured Promissory Note executed by the Company in favor of Mr. Strems on July 9, 2020 (the “Note”) by failing to make the semi-annual installment payments due thereunder in a timely manner. The Company did not cure the shortfall in those payments within ten (10) days as demanded in the undersigned’s January 20, 2023 notice of default. Accordingly, as set forth in the Note, the total unpaid principal and accrued interest due thereunder may be declared due and payable at the option of Mr. Strems, which option is hereby exercised in accordance with the terms of the Note. Despite your assertions to the contrary, the Company is clearly in default under its obligations under the Note and the total balance due thereunder as of February 9, 2023 is $35,589,784.82, which consists of principal of $35,566,982.97 and accrued interest through February 9, 2023 of $22,801.85, all of which is hereby declared to be immediately due and owing and shall bear interest at the rate of eighteen percent (18%) per annum from February 9, 2023 until paid.

Mr. Strems disputes the salacious and false accusations made in your correspondence, and denies that he has in any way misappropriated funds from the Company, and/or violated any duties owed to the Company, of which he was the sole shareholder prior to July 9, 2020. The assertions made in your correspondence are defamatory in nature, are based on half-truths, and, frankly, do not merit a further response by Mr. Strems.

It is Mr. Strems' hope, expectation, and preference that the Company will honor its obligations to repay the amounts due under the Note as demanded herein and that this matter be resolved amicably. Mr. Strems will not, however, simply ignore his rights to be repaid the amounts due under the Note. To that end, should the demands made herein not be met within ten (10) days, Mr. Strems has instructed our firm to commence legal action against the Company to enforce the Note.

Nothing in this letter is a waiver of any of our client's rights and remedies with respect to the foregoing matters, all of which are hereby expressly reserved.

Very truly yours,

Eduardo F. Rodriguez

Re: Scot Strems, Esq. adv. The Property Advocates, P.A. – Notice of Event of Default Pursuant to Stock Escrow Agreement Dated July 9, 2020 and Entered Among The Property Advocates, P.A. f/k/a The Strems Law Firm, P.A., Scot Strems, and Mark Kamilar (the “Escrow Agreement”)

Dear Mr. Kamilar:

We are writing in our capacity as legal counsel for Scot Strems, Esq. (“Mr. Strems”), the former owner of a one hundred percent (100%) ownership interest in The Property Advocates, P.A. (the “Corporation”).

We write to you in your capacity as the Escrow Agent under the above referenced Escrow Agreement. As you know, the Escrow Agreement was executed among its parties, including you as the Escrow Agent thereunder, in connection with that certain Redemption Agreement entered between the Corporation and Mr. Strems on July 9, 2020 (the “Redemption Agreement”), pursuant to which the Corporation redeemed all of Mr. Strems’ shares of stock in the Corporation (the “Redeemed Shares”) in exchange for that certain Promissory Note in the amount of $40,000,000 executed by the Corporation in favor of Mr. Strems on July 9, 2020 (the “Note”), the repayment of which was secured through a security interest in and to, among other assets, the Redeemed Shares by delivery of the certificates evidencing the Redeemed Shares to you, as the Escrow Agent, in accordance with the terms of Escrow Agreement.

The Note provided for the Corporation, as the Obligor thereunder, to pay the sum of $40,000,000, along with interest at an annual rate of forty-five hundredths percent (0.45%), to Mr. Strems by making semi-annual installment payments of $2,000,000 on December 31 and June 30 of each calendar year (the “Installment Payments”), and by paying the entire principal balance plus any accrued interest due thereon on July 1, 2030 (the “Maturity Date”). The Note provides for the right to accelerate the amounts due and owing under the Note, as follows:

In the event (i) Obligor shall default on any installment payment of principal or interest under this Note when the same is due and payable, which default is not cured within ten (10) days following written notice of such default is provided by Holder [i.e., Mr. Strems], (ii) Obligor shall make an assignment for the benefit of creditors, or (iii) Obligor shall admit in writing its inability to pay its debts as they become due or shall file a voluntary petition in bankruptcy or shall be adjudicated bankrupt, then upon the occurrence of any such events, the total unpaid principal and accrued interest due under this Note may be declared immediately due and payable at the option of Holder [i.e., Mr. Strems].”

The Note provides that a “[f]ailure to exercise this option shall not constitute a waiver of the right to exercise same at a later time for any subsequent default.” Further, Mr. Strems is entitled to recover from the Corporation “all costs of collection, including reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs.” Finally, the Note provides for the payment of default interest “at the lesser of eighteen percent (18%) per annum, or the maximum interest rate allowed by the law of the State of Florida.”

Section 4(b) of the Escrow Agreement provides, in pertinent part, as follows:

Upon the occurrence of any of the events of default listed below, the Stockholder [i.e., Mr. Strems] shall deliver to Escrow Agent, within ten (10) days after any such default, a written notice indicating the nature of such default (the “Default Notice”) which shall contain (i) an affidavit, sworn to by such representative, stating that the Corporation has defaulted, with specific reference to the date or dates of default; and (ii) direction to Escrow Agent to ... sell all or whatever portion of the Redeemed Shares as is necessary and required in order to satisfy the unpaid principal amount, together with accrued interest to the date of payment, if any, due under the Note....

Section 5(a) of the Escrow Agreement provided that “[t]he Corporation’s failure to make timely payments of any amounts due under the Note” shall constitute an event of default upon the occurrence of which, Mr. Strems is entitled to exercise all of his rights set forth in the Escrow Agreement.

As set forth in the separate correspondence sent by the undersigned to the Corporation and its current shareholders, in their capacities as officers and/or directors of the Corporation, on January 20, 2023, a copy of which is attached to Mr. Strems’ affidavit submitted along with this correspondence, the Corporation failed to make the semi-annual installment payments due under the Note in a timely manner. More specifically, the Corporation failed to make each of the Installment Payments due on December 31, 2020, June 30, 2021, December 31, 2021, June 30, 2022, and December 31, 2022, respectively, in their entirety, choosing instead to make sporadic partial payments that resulted in a shortfall with respect to each of those payments, as follows:

- December 31, 2020 Installment: the Corporation made loan payments totaling $500,000 between July 9, 2020 and December 31, 2020, resulting in a shortfall of $1,500,000 for the December 31, 2020 installment payment;
- June 30, 2021 Installment: the Corporation made loan payments totaling $1,002,000 between January 1, 2021 and June 30, 2021, resulting in a shortfall of $998,000 for the June 30, 2021 installment payment;
- December 31, 2021 Installment: the Corporation made loan payments totaling $1,732,000 between July 1, 2021 and December 31, 2021, resulting in a shortfall of $268,000 for the December 31, 2021 installment payment;
- June 30, 2022 Installment: the Corporation made loan payments totaling $1,016,000 between January 1, 2022 and June 30, 2022, resulting in a shortfall of $984,000 for the June 30, 2022 installment payment; and
- December 31, 2022 Installment: the Corporation made loan payments totaling $600,000 between July 1, 2022 and December 31, 2022, resulting in a shortfall of $1,400,000 for the December 31, 2022 installment payment.

In total, the Corporation failed to make $5,150,000 in Installment Payments when due. The Corporation did not cure the shortfall in those payments within ten (10) days as demanded in the undersigned's January 20, 2023 notice of default and, therefore, as set forth in the Note, was in default of its payment obligations due under the Note as of January 31, 2023. As provided in the Note, Mr. Strems directed the undersigned counsel to send correspondence to the Corporation's counsel just prior to sending you this correspondence, to exercise his option to accelerate the total unpaid principal and accrued interest due thereunder, which correspondence is also attached to the affidavit of Mr. Strems submitted along with this correspondence. The Corporation is clearly in default under its obligations under the Note and the total balance due thereunder as of February 9, 2023 is $35,589,784.82, which consists of principal of $35,566,982.97 and accrued interest through February 9, 2023 of $22,801.85, all of which is hereby declared to be immediately due and owing and shall bear interest at the rate of eighteen percent (18%) per annum from February 9, 2023 until paid (the "Outstanding Balance").

Pursuant to Section 4(b) of the Escrow Agreement, we hereby provide you with written notice that the Corporation has defaulted under the terms of Note by failing to make the semi-annual installment payments due thereunder in a timely manner and, after receiving notice of such payment default, failing to cure the default within ten (10) days as set forth in the Note. As set forth above, Mr. Strems has exercised his option to declare the Outstanding Balance to be immediately due and owing. Accordingly, as set forth in Section 5(a) of the Escrow Agreement, Mr. Strems is entitled to exercise all of the rights set forth therein.

To that end, as required under Section 4(b) of the Escrow Agreement, enclosed with this correspondence is an affidavit sworn to by Mr. Strems stating that, as of January 30, 2023, the Corporation has defaulted under the obligations under the Note and with specific reference to the date or dates of default. Further, as contemplated thereby, we hereby direct you, as the Escrow

Agent under the Escrow Agreement, to “sell all or whatever portion of the Redeemed Shares as is necessary and required in order to satisfy the unpaid principal amount, together with accrued interest to the date of payment, if any, due under the Note.”

As set forth in Section 4(c) of the Escrow Agreement, it is our understanding that you are required to notify the Corporation of your receipt of this Default Notice forthwith and that, if the Corporation claims that no such defaults have occurred, which we anticipate they will do, and, because the event of default set forth herein is the nonpayment of amounts due under the Note, the Corporation must, within ten (10) days after receipt of this Default Notice from you, exhibit to you “canceled checks or written receipts evidencing payment of such alleged defaulted payments.” The Corporation will be unable to meet this burden of establishing that it is not in default of its payment obligations under the Note and, therefore, we anticipate that you, as the Escrow Agent, will be required to sell the Redeemed Shares in accordance with the directions set forth in this Default Notice and in accordance with the Escrow Agreement.

We have copied Clay Roesch, Esq. of Shuffield Lowman in Orlando, who is counsel for the Corporation.

Nothing in this letter is a waiver of any of our client’s rights and remedies with respect to the foregoing matters, all of which are hereby expressly reserved.

Very truly yours,

Eduardo F. Rodriguez

AFFIDAVIT OF SCOT STREMS

STATE OF FLORIDA)

4. The Note provided for the Corporation, as the Obligor thereunder, to pay the sum of $40,000,000, along with interest at an annual rate of forty-five hundredths percent (0.45%), to Mr. Stremms by making semi-annual installment payments of $2,000,000 on December 31 and June 30 of each calendar year (the “Installment Payments”), and by paying the entire principal balance plus any accrued interest due thereon on July 1, 2030 (the “Maturity Date”).

- December 31, 2022 Installment: the Corporation made loan payments totaling $600,000 between July 1, 2022 and December 31, 2022, resulting in a shortfall of $1,400,000 for the December 31, 2022 installment payment.

6. On January 20, 2023, my legal counsel provided the Corporation with a notice of default and opportunity to cure, which advised the Corporation that it had failed to make a total of $5,150,000 in Installment Payments when due and demanded that such payment default be cured within ten (10) days as provided in the Note. A true and correct copy of my counsel's January 20, 2023 correspondence is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.

7. The Corporation did not cure the payment default within the ten (10) days' cure period provided in my counsel's January 20, 2023 correspondence and as required under the Note and, therefore, defaulted under the terms of the Note as of January 30, 2023.

8. As set forth in the correspondence sent by my counsel to the Corporation's counsel on February 9, 2023, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 3, and as provided in the Note, I have elected to declare the entire principal and interest balance due to me under the Note to be immediately due and owing as of February 9, 2023, the total outstanding balance of which as of February 9, 2023 is $35,589,784.82, which consists of principal of $35,566,982.97 and accrued interest through February 9, 2023 of $22,801.85, and which shall bear interest at the rate of eighteen percent (18%) per annum from February 9, 2023 until paid.

The entire principal balance plus any accrued interest shall be due and payable on July 1, 2030 (the "Maturity Date"). OBLIGOR AND HOLDER HEREBY KNOWINGLY, VOLUNTARILY AND INTENTIONALLY WAIVE THE RIGHT EITHER MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN RESPECT OF ANY LITIGATION BASED HEREON OR ARISING OUT OF, UNDER OR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS NOTE AND ANY AGREEMENT CONTEMPLATED TO BE EXECUTED IN CONJUNCTION HEREWITH, OR ANY COURSE OF CONDUCT, COURSE OF DEALING, STATEMENTS (WHETHER VERBAL OR WRITTEN) OR ACTIONS OF EITHER PARTY. Re: NOTICE OF DEFAULT – FAILURE TO MAKE INSTALLMENT PAYMENTS OF PRINCIPAL AND INTEREST DUE UNDER $40,000,000 PROMISSORY NOTE EXECUTED BY THE PROPERTY ADVOCATES, P.A. IN FAVOR OF SCOT STREMS

Dear Messrs. Patterson and Narchet:

We are writing in our capacity as legal counsel for Scot Strem, Esq. (“Mr. Strem”), the holder in due course of that certain $40,000,000 Promissory Note dated July 9, 2020 that was executed by your company, The Property Advocates, P.A., as Obligor (the “Obligor”), in favor of Mr. Strem (the “Note”), which is secured by that certain Security Agreement dated July 9, 2020 executed by Mr. Strem and the Obligor (the “Security Agreement”) and the rights set forth in that certain Stock Escrow Agreement dated July 9, 2020 executed by Mr. Strem, the Obligor, and Mark Kamilar, as escrow agent (the “Escrow Agreement”). In accordance with the terms of the Note, we hereby provide written notice of the Obligor’s default of its obligation to make each of the semi-annual installment payments of $2,000,000 due on December 31, 2020, June 30, 2021, December 31, 2021, June 30, 2022, and December 31, 2022. That is, as set forth in greater detail below, the Obligor made only partial payments towards each of the above semi-annual installment payments and, therefore, has defaulted in its obligation to make such payments in a timely manner. Accordingly, demand is hereby made that the Obligor cure its default within ten (10) days following the date of this correspondence, or by January 30, 2023, by paying the sum of $5,150,000, which is the total shortfall for the above installment payments, to Mr. Strem. Should Obligor fail to cure its defaults under the Note in a timely manner, Mr. Strem shall declare the total unpaid principal and accrued interest due under the Note to be immediately due and payable.

The Note, which was executed by the Obligor in favor of Mr. Stremms in conjunction with the execution of that certain Redemption Agreement executed between Mr. Stremms and the Obligor also on June 9, 2020, provided for the Obligor to pay the sum of $40,000,000, along with interest at an annual rate of forty-five hundredths percent (0.45%), to Mr. Stremms by making semi-annual installment payments of $2,000,000 on December 31 and June 30 of each calendar year (the “Installment Payments”), and by paying the entire principal balance plus any accrued interest due thereon on July 1, 2030 (the “Maturity Date”). The Note provides for the right to accelerate the amounts due and owing under the Note, as follows:

In the event (i) Obligor shall default on any installment payment of principal or interest under this Note when the same is due and payable, which default is not cured within ten (10) days following written notice of such default is provided by Holder [i.e., Mr. Stremms], (ii) Obligor shall make an assignment for the benefit of creditors, or (iii) Obligor shall admit in writing its inability to pay its debts as they become due or shall file a voluntary petition in bankruptcy or shall be adjudicated bankrupt, then upon the occurrence of any such events, the total unpaid principal and accrued interest due under this Note may be declared immediately due and payable at the option of Holder [i.e., Mr. Stremms].”

The Note provides that a “[f]ailure to exercise this option shall not constitute a waiver of the right to exercise same at a later time for any subsequent default.” Further, Mr. Stremms is entitled to recover from Obligor “all costs of collection, including reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs.” Finally, the Note provides for the payment of default interest “at the lesser of eighteen percent (18%) per annum, or the maximum interest rate allowed by the law of the State of Florida.”

The Note was secured by the Security Agreement, pursuant to which Obligor granted a security interest in substantially all of the assets of Obligor and one hundred percent (100%) of the issued and outstanding stocks of Obligor that had been transferred to the Obligor in connection with the Redemption Agreement (the “Redeemed Shares”) as collateral to secure the repayment of the obligations under the Note (the “Collateral”). Security Agreement at ¶¶ 2, 3. Further, the Security Agreement expressly provided that “until the Note shall have been satisfied in full (whether by conversion, payment, or otherwise), Obligor shall not, without Obligees’ [i.e., Mr. Stremms’] prior consent, assign, transfer, encumber, or otherwise dispose of the Collateral, or any interest therein, except in the ordinary course of Obligor’s business.” Id. at ¶ 5.1. And, further, the Security Agreement provides in pertinent part that “Obligor shall not ... grant any security interest in the Collateral.” Id. at ¶ 5.2. The Security Agreement also provides that an “Event of Default” under the Note shall constitute an “Event of Default” under the Security Agreement. Id. at ¶ 6.1. Finally, the Security Agreement provides that, upon an “Event of Default” under the Security Agreement, Mr. Stremms “may ... declare all Obligations secured hereby immediately due and payable without demand or notice of any kind, and the same thereupon shall immediately become and be due and payable without demand or notice” and that he “shall have and may exercise from time to time any and all rights and remedies of a secured party under the Uniform Commercial Code and any and all rights and remedies available to it under any other applicable law.” Id. at ¶ 7.

To facilitate the rights and remedies available to Mr. Strems, as a secured creditor, under the Security Agreement upon the occurrence of an “Event of Default” of the Obligor’s obligations under the Note, and in particular the obligation to make timely payments due and owing under the Note, the parties entered into the Escrow Agreement, which contemplates a procedure for Mr. Strems to direct Mr. Kamilar, as escrow agent, “to ... sell all or whatever portion of the Redeemed Shares as is necessary and required in order to satisfy the unpaid principal amount, together with accrued interest to the date of payment, of any, due under the Note....” Escrow Agreement at ¶ 4(b).

The Obligor failed to make each of the Installment Payments due on December 31, 2020, June 30, 2021, December 31, 2021, June 30, 2022, and December 31, 2022, respectively, in their entirety, choosing instead to make sporadic partial payments that resulted in a shortfall with respect to each of those payments, as follows:

- December 31, 2020 Installment: Obligor made loan payments totaling $500,000 between July 9, 2020 and December 31, 2020, resulting in a shortfall of $1,500,000 for the December 31, 2020 installment payment;
- June 30, 2021 Installment: Obligor made loan payments totaling $1,002,000 between January 1, 2021 and June 30, 2021, resulting in a shortfall of $998,000 for the June 30, 2021 installment payment;
- December 31, 2021 Installment: Obligor made loan payments totaling $1,732,000 between July 1, 2021 and December 31, 2021, resulting in a shortfall of $268,000 for the December 31, 2021 installment payment;
- June 30, 2022 Installment: Obligor made loan payments totaling $1,016,000 between January 1, 2022 and June 30, 2022, resulting in a shortfall of $984,000 for the June 30, 2022 installment payment; and
- December 31, 2022 Installment: Obligor made loan payments totaling $600,000 between July 1, 2022 and December 31, 2022, resulting in a shortfall of $1,400,000 for the December 31, 2022 installment payment.

In total, Obligor has failed to make a total of $5,150,000 in Installment Payments when due and is, therefore, in default of such payment obligations.

Demand is hereby made that the Obligor cure the above defaults within ten (10) days of the date of this correspondence by paying the sum of $5,150,000 to Mr. Strems as agreed. Should Obligor not cure its defaults in a timely manner, Mr. Strems will be left no alternative but to declare the entire principal and interest due and owing under the Note to be immediately due, along with default interest at the right of eighteen percent (18%) per annum, and to enforce his rights and remedies available under the Note, the Redemption Agreement, the Security Agreement, and the Escrow Agreement (collectively, the “Transaction Documents”), including the rights available to him as a secured creditor and the right to direct Mr. Kamilar to sell the

Redeemed Shares to satisfy the principal and interest due under the Note. We trust that such a course of action will prove unnecessary, and that the Obligor will honor its obligations under the Note and the other Transaction Documents.

Nothing in this letter is a waiver of any of our client's rights and remedies with respect to the foregoing matters, all of which are hereby expressly reserved.

PLEASE GOVERN YOURSELVES ACCORDINGLY.

Re: Scot Strems, Esq. adv. The Property Advocates, P.A. – Notice of Acceleration of Principal and Interest Due Under Promissory Note dated July 9, 2020

Dear Mr. Roesch:

We are writing in our capacity as legal counsel for Scot Strems, Esq. (“Mr. Strems”), the former owner of a one hundred percent (100%) ownership interest in The Property Advocates, P.A. (the “Company”), which we understand is represented by you. We write in response to your correspondence dated January 30, 2023. We request that you confirm whether we should direct this correspondence directly to your client.

As set forth in the separate correspondence sent to the Company and the shareholders of the Company, in their capacities as officers and/or directors of the Company, on January 20, 2023, the Company is currently in default on its obligations under that certain secured Promissory Note executed by the Company in favor of Mr. Strems on July 9, 2020 (the “Note”) by failing to make the semi-annual installment payments due thereunder in a timely manner. The Company did not cure the shortfall in those payments within ten (10) days as demanded in the undersigned’s January 20, 2023 notice of default. Accordingly, as set forth in the Note, the total unpaid principal and accrued interest due thereunder may be declared due and payable at the option of Mr. Strems, which option is hereby exercised in accordance with the terms of the Note. Despite your assertions to the contrary, the Company is clearly in default under its obligations under the Note and the total balance due thereunder as of February 9, 2023 is $35,589,784.82, which consists of principal of $35,566,982.97 and accrued interest through February 9, 2023 of $22,801.85, all of which is hereby declared to be immediately due and owing and shall bear interest at the rate of eighteen percent (18%) per annum from February 9, 2023 until paid.

Mr. Strems disputes the salacious and false accusations made in your correspondence, and denies that he has in any way misappropriated funds from the Company, and/or violated any duties owed to the Company, of which he was the sole shareholder prior to July 9, 2020. The assertions made in your correspondence are defamatory in nature, are based on half-truths, and, frankly, do not merit a further response by Mr. Strems.

It is Mr. Strems' hope, expectation, and preference that the Company will honor its obligations to repay the amounts due under the Note as demanded herein and that this matter be resolved amicably. Mr. Strems will not, however, simply ignore his rights to be repaid the amounts due under the Note. To that end, should the demands made herein not be met within ten (10) days, Mr. Strems has instructed our firm to commence legal action against the Company to enforce the Note.

Nothing in this letter is a waiver of any of our client's rights and remedies with respect to the foregoing matters, all of which are hereby expressly reserved.

Very truly yours,

Eduardo F. Rodriguez

RE: STOCK ESCROW AGREEMENT DATED JULY 9, 2020 BETWEEN THE PROPERTY ADVOCATES, P.A., SCOT STREMS AND MARK KAMILAR
(THE “ESCROW AGREEMENT”) - NOTICE OF NO DEFAULT

Dear Mr. Kamilar,

We have the pleasure of representing The Property Advocates, P.A. (the “Firm”) in connection with the above captioned matter. I write in response to the letter dated February 9, 2023 from Eduardo Rodriguez a counsel from Scot Stremms asserting that the Firm is in default of its obligations under the Note. Please be advised that the Firm denies that any such default has occurred as Mr. Stremms waived and is otherwise estopped from asserting a default based on non-payment. As you know Section 4(c) of the Agreement permits the Firm to contest any claimed default by providing an affidavit to you or evidence of payment. Enclosed please find the Affidavit of Hunter Patterson controverting the default claimed by Stremms. I have also enclosed our correspondence to Mr. Stremms advising him that he waived and is estopped from declaring a default under the Note.

Notice is hereby given that if you accept any direction from Stremms to sell or return any portion of the Redeemed Shares pursuant to the Escrow Agreement, the Firm will take legal action against you. Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions or would like to discuss this matter further.

Neither this letter, nor any part of it, constitutes an admission on the part of the Firm and no statement herein shall in any way be interpreted as affecting or limiting the Firm’s rights; nor shall any statement contained herein constitute an express or implied waiver of any rights, remedies, or defenses as such may relate to any matter referred to herein.

Sincerely,

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, appeared Hunter Patterson, Esquire, who, being first duly sworn, swears based on his own personal knowledge that the following is true and correct:

1. I am an attorney in the State of Florida and am President of the Property Advocates, P.A. (the “Firm”)

2. I am familiar with the provision of the Note between the Firm and Scot Strem. Specifically, the Note provides that the Firm will make semi-annual payments in the amount of two million dollars ($2,000,000.00) (the “Installment Amounts”).

3. On October 12, 2020, I sent a message to Strem stating that the Firm would “see what we can pay you” in reference to the payment of the initial Installment Amount.

4. That same day, Strem responded stating that the Firm should pay “anything feasible ... I don’t wanna handicap the firm”.

5. Between December 21, 2020 and December 31, 2022, the Firm made partial payments of the Installment Amounts to Strem (the “Partial Payments”).

6. At no time prior to January 20, 2023, did Strem directly communicate to me that he (a) objects to receiving less than the full amounts due under the Note or (b) declares the Firm to be in default for failure to pay the full amounts due under the Note. As such, Strem has waived, and is otherwise estopped, from declaring the Firm to be in default for failure to pay the full amounts due between December 31, 2020 and December 31, 2022.
